

Do not lessen the no call policy for the banks. If they would offer their customers better rates they wouldn't lose them and have to resort to follow-up calls.